Aprons That Are Chic and Useful

PATTERN 2060

The housewife who takes pride in her kitchen usually takes great interest in a goodly supply of chic aprons, and where could you find two lovelier models than those shown today. Both are included in the one pattern and both have slenderizing front panels and that fashionable half-belted waistline. The upper design gives fine opportunity for using rick-rack braid to set off the lines of its smart V neck and spacious pockets. The lower sketch boasts a youthfully rounded neckline and jaunty capelike shoulders, and would be as pretty as can be made up in a dainty dotted swiss, edged with embroidery.

Pattern 2060 is available in sizes small, medium and large. Medium size, each apron takes one and a half yards 36-inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

SEND FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Write plainly NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE.

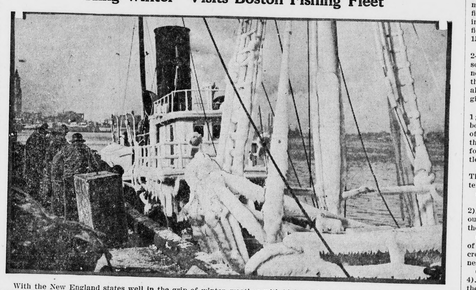
"King Winter" Visits Boston Fishing Fleet



With the New England states well in the grip of winter weather, with high winds and temperatures around zero, the fishing fleet comes into Boston well decorated and cased in ice. This photograph shows the trawler Penguin as she unloaded her fish at the Boston fish pier after battling the high seas to make port.

Artificial Throat to Save Baby

Dr. P. Insley of Baltimore is shown with little Miss X, three-day-old baby, who was born without a throat. X-ray pictures disclosed an abbreviated esophagus, which instead of leading into the stomach only led as far as the collar bone. Undaunted, Doctor Insley, and his assistant, Doctor Bay, inserted a rubber tube down the child's throat through which she is now being fed, while they seek to extend the esophagus by the grafting of living tissue.

TARGET OF PLOT

Startling details of an extortion plot aimed at Barton Sewell, young Beverly Hills (Calif.) millionaire, were disclosed as investigators for the district attorney's office pressed an intensive investigation which they admitted they have been carrying on for several weeks. The disclosures followed close on the heels of the filing of a sensational group of marital suits in which Sewell also is involved. The young man received threats that he and his mother would come to grief unless $25,000 was paid.

Lesson for February 10

PETER PREACHES AT PENTECOST

LESSON TEXT—Acts 2:22-28, 36-42.

GOLDEN TEXT—Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. Acts 2:38.

PRIMARY TOPIC — When Peter Preached a Great Sermon.

JUNIOR TOPIC—What Peter Preached at Pentecost.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Story of a Wonderful Day.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Source of Spiritual Power.

In teaching this lesson it is essential that the full meaning of Pentecost be apprehended. It is desirable, therefore, that the entire second chapter of Acts be brought into view.

I. The Day of Pentecost Fully Come (vv. 1-13).

1. The significance of the day (v. 1). Pentecost is from a Greek word meaning fifty. It was the feast held fifty days after the wave sheaf offering (Lev. 23:15). The wave sheaf typifies the resurrection of Christ (I Cor. 15:20-23).

2. The gift of the Holy Spirit (vv. 2-4). On this day the Holy Spirit descended upon the disciples. This does not mean that the Spirit was not in the world before this, for throughout all the ages he has been in the world, giving light and life to it.

3. Upon whom the Spirit came (v. 1; cf. 1:13-15). The twelve and others, both men and women, to the number of one hundred twenty, which shows that the gift of the Holy Spirit was for all believers, not merely the apostles.

4. The marks of the Spirit (vv. 2-4). These marks were external and internal.

a. External.

(1) The sound of a mighty wind (v. 2). This is suggestive of the mysterious, pervasive and powerful energy of the Spirit.

(2) Tongues of flame (v. 3). Each of the one hundred twenty was crowned with such a tongue for witnessing.

(3) Speaking in foreign tongues (v. 4). This miraculous gift characterized the apostolic age, but no authentic case has been reported in modern times.

b. Internal. This is seen in the transformation wrought in the disciples. Peter, who shortly before this cowered before a Jewish maid, now with boldness stands before the chief rulers and declares that they have murdered their King, and are guilty before God.

5. The effects (vv. 5-13).

a. The multitudes were filled with amazement and wonder.

b. Some mocked and accused the disciples of being intoxicated.

II. Peter's Sermon (vv. 14-47). Peter's sermon is as wonderful as the gift of tongues. It demonstrates the presence and power of the Spirit because he was a Galilean fisherman, without literary training. His homiletical analysis is perfect.

1. The introduction (vv. 14-21).

a. Defense of the disciples against the charge of being drunk (v. 15). He cited Jewish custom, showing that they would not be drunk at such an early hour of the day.

b. A scriptural explanation (vv. 16-21). He showed that this was a partial fulfillment of Joel's prophecy (Joel 2:28-32).

2. The proposition, or theme (v. 36). This was the messiahship of Jesus. The argument which followed proved that Jesus was the Lord upon whom they were to call in order to be saved.

3. The argument (vv. 22-36). It was threefold.

a. From Christ's works (v. 22). He was approved of God among the Jews by his miracles, wonders, and signs, with which they were familiar.

b. From his resurrection (vv. 23-32). The Old Testament Scriptures had foretold the death and resurrection of Christ (Ps. 16:8-10). The disciples themselves were living witnesses of Christ's resurrection (v. 32).

c. From his ascension to the right hand of God (v. 33). The proof that he had ascended on high was the wonderful miracle of the Spirit's operation in their midst (John 16:7).

4. The effect of the sermon (vv. 37-42). Many people were convicted of their sins; some three thousand repented and were baptized. The evidence that the coming of the Spirit was real was:

a. That they continued steadfastly in the apostolic teaching (v. 42).

b. They continued in fellowship with the apostles (v. 42).

c. They continued in prayer (v. 42).

d. They gave their possessions to sustain those who had need (v. 45).

e. They lived gracious lives (vv. 46, 47).

Source of Disorders

An improper use of time is the source of all the disorders which reign amongst men. It is a treasure which we would wish to retain forever, yet which we cannot suffer to remain in our possession. This time, however, of which we make so little moment, is the only means of our eternal salvation.

HERE'S CHAIR SET EASY TO CROCHET

By GRANDMOTHER CLARK

Since crochet work is again interesting the art needleworkers, why not pick up your No. 8 or 9 steel crochet hook and thread about size 15 and crochet this attractive three-piece set for your living room chair, or for a gift? It will surely be appreciated and admired. Chair backs and arm rests are old decorations but now growing in popularity and are modern. This set is worked in the large filet stitch, works up rapidly and is simple work even for the inexperienced. The center piece measures 14x11 inches, the arm rests 6x11 inches, with about size 15 thread. By using a larger hook and crocheting looser, the finished pieces will be larger, if desired.

In the large filet an open mesh equals 1 triple crochet (thread twice over hook). Chain 3, skip 3. A solid mesh equals 3 triple crochet. Add 4 triple crochet for each additional solid mesh.

Send 10 cents to our Crochet department for directions and working diagram for this No. 805, or if you have no material you can get the entire outfit for 40c, namely, instructions, diagram, crochet hook, and sufficient cream color thread to complete the three pieces.

PROFITABLE WATER

Some farmers in the drouth regions who were able to improvise irrigation systems last summer reaped handsome profits. John C. Dunegan of the bureau of plant industry reports the experience of a fruit grower who irrigated 827 eight-year-old peach trees in an orchard at Springdale, Ark. He applied approximately 1,000,000 gallons of water during the drouth at a cost of $240. He marketed about 7,000 bushels of peaches from the trees, and the fruit was so much better size and quality than the peaches from unirrigated trees that his price was about 50 cents a bushel more than his neighbors were able to get.

Thus the $240 expenditure for water was responsible for a $1,500 increase in income, for quality, not counting the increase in the number of bushels he harvested as the result of irrigation.

Doctors Know!
...and they use liquid laxatives

You'd use a liquid, too, if you knew how much better it makes you feel.

A liquid laxative can always be taken in the right amount. You can gradually reduce the dose. Reduced dosage is the secret of real and safe relief from constipation.

But ask your own doctor about this. Ask your druggist how popular liquid laxatives have become. The right liquid laxative gives the right kind of help—and the right amount of help. When the dose is repeated, instead of more each time, you take less. Until the bowels are moving regularly and thoroughly—without aid.

People who have experienced this comfort, never return to any form of help that can't be regulated! The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains senna and cascara, and these are natural laxatives that form no habit. It relieves a condition of biliousness or sluggishness without upset.

To relieve your occasional upsets safely and comfortably, try Syrup Pepsin. The druggist has it.
